Instructor Information:

Johanna Hume
jhume@alvincollege.edu
G-124
281-756-3737

You can expect most responses to your e-mails to have a 24 hour turn around during the week, Monday through Friday. I will not always check my e-mail or voice mail on the weekends. If you do not hear from me, I have not gotten your message. Please try again or call the department secretary at 281-756-3724.

Course Information:

American History from 1877; History 1302.

This course will include the following major topics in US History: The West, Industrialism, Progressivism, Imperialism, WWI, the 20s, the Great Depression, WWII, Cold War, Vietnam, Civil Rights Movement.

Textbooks:

3. Coming of Age in Mississippi by Anne Moody. ISBN#0440314887. However, any full, unabridged, edition is fine.

All above readings are available in the ACC Bookstore and from online sources. You may also order online from the ACC Bookstore at http://www.alvinccstore.com/textbooks.asp?mscssid=D25TUTMU9AVX8GH38M9PF4VTJGBQFD82

Course Requirements:

Student will be responsible for the following:
1. Two major exams over the chapters assigned in The American Promise.
2. Online quizzes/assessments from The American Promise and web assignments which reflect the content of the assigned chapters.
3. Online quizzes & essays over Weekend in September & Coming of Age in Mississippi.

Grades:

- Midterm: 20%
- Final: 20%
- Web Assignments: 30%
- Books: 20%
- Chapter Quizzes: 10%

Policies:

The two major exams must be taken on campus (ACC or Pearland.) These exams will be proctored by the instructor, the PCC Library or the ACC Learning Lab. The only exception is for out-of-town students who must find an off campus testing site. All other work will be completed via the internet. Students should read “Is Online Learning for Me?” and explore one of the distance learning websites before beginning the course. Also see “Tips for online learning” in your orientation packet.

Students are expected to complete all of their own work and all assignments are to be done on an individual basis. Student work that is copied will not be accepted. All written work must be in the student’s own words unless proper references are used. Read PLAGIARISM in your orientation packet. Work that is copied directly from the text, articles, books or the internet will not be accepted and will put student in jeopardy of failing the entire course.

WARNING: PLEASE READ!!!

Work that looks similar to another student’s work will be scrutinized. Students must submit all written work to Turnitin.com, an internet plagiarism site. In addition, if I determine that a student has cheated, punitive measures will immediately be taken. The most likely consequence for any type of cheating or plagiarism is failing the entire course. Please read the college’s Academic Dishonesty policy.