

Debra Rueb
Photographer

Debra Rueb is a professional photographer and exhibiting artist living in the Houston area. She is currently a photography instructor at Alvin Community College, where she is also campus photographer. Debra's resume spans more than 20 years of local and national exhibits and numerous awards, scholarships, and grants. Debra has also photographed a wide variety of events and conferences. Her work has been used in billboards, posters, slide sets, web pages, catalogs, brochures and magazine covers. For more information and samples of her photography you can go to her web site at <http://www.debrarueb.com>