

Kartik Trivedi

Adjunct faculty member Kartik Trivedi was born in Gujarat State, India. His educational background is varied with four Master degrees to his credit. He received a Master of Fine Arts from Kent State, Ohio and M.A. in Art History from Case-Reserve University of Cleveland, Ohio. His paintings are in art collections around the world. He enjoys playing Raga Music, (North Indian Classical), on the piano. A book on his life and works was published in 1993. Mr. Trivedi teaches Art appreciation and painting.

Kartik has paintings in art collections around the world. He expresses his belief as such, 'Art is the expression of one's own personal feelings to document a natural landscape or a historical fact. I as a painter try to document the beautiful aspects of the planet Earth. The viewer is free to enjoy my perception of nature.'
