

Vivian_ Pollock

Native Texan Vivian Pollock majored in Fine Arts and Psychology and graduated with a Masters of Humanities from the University of Houston-Clear Lake. She teaches Art Appreciation for Alvin Community College. Vivian usually chooses water media to express her interest in flora and fauna while striving to convey her images in dramatic ways. She is member of the Watercolor society and has paintings in permanent and private collections.