Road Tripping the Texas Chronicles

Joe Perez is a 9-time Emmy Award winning director, editor, producer and host of Texas Chronicles: History, Mystery and Adventure. Road trips and video production, combined with Joe's passion for learning and telling people's stories, sparked his idea to video his travels through Texas. From producing national commercials to videography for National Geographic, Perez has also produced more than 200 episodes of his adventure spinoffs, Texas Chronicles: Pit Stop and Texas Chronicles Kids Edition, hosted by his son, Eli.

When he isn't making videos or watching movies, he enjoys traveling around Texas with his wife and two sons, while sharing the stories of unique Texans and their small businesses through the Texas Chronicles.
