ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Liz Sitta is Chief Administrator for Brazoria County Commissioner Stacy Adams. Liz has been employed in public service for the last sixteen years.

Active with community involvement, Liz serves on the foundation for Kidz Harbor, a foster home. She also chairs the Brazoria County Child Welfare Board and serves as president for West Pearland Republican Women. Her favorite community activity is mentoring within the Pearland ISD RISE Mentorship Program. Examples of her numerous recognitions: Volunteer of the Year (Alvin-Manvel Chamber of Commerce, 2021); Volunteer of the Year (ACE Family Advisory Board, 2017); Outstanding Hero (Communities in Schools, 2016). Liz is a Leadership Institute graduate (Alvin-Manvel Chamber of Commerce) and a graduate of LeadershipLATINO (Texas Latino Conservatives).

Loving wife to Kevin, and mother to Aden and Olive, Liz resides in Pearland and attends New Hope Church in Friendswood. The Sitta family enjoys gardening and supporting great candidates, when not battling with Star Wars lightsabers.

Students, Faculty, Staff, and Community Members are Welcome!
