ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Sarah Currie is the CEWD Director of Business and Technical Programs at Alvin Community College.

A great deal of Sarah's work is the development of customized corporate training initiatives. Through her experience managing workforce development grants, Sarah has developed unique partnerships with local municipalities, industry, and community organizations. With multiple community organizations, Sarah also has developed on-campus learning partnerships geared to adult basic education.

Before her work in higher education, Sarah was a hospital social worker in Canada. She resides in Angleton with her husband and son. She is a registered yoga instructor and enjoys hiking, water sports, and gardening.

Students, Faculty, Staff, and Community Members are Welcome!
