Join George Appling's "Don't Settle" workshop to choose your own path! George is an author and entrepreneur with a diverse career across countries and industries. Since 2009, he has built passion-driven businesses like a mead-making company, a medieval festival, a summer camp, and a non-profit equine program for first responders and veterans.

As a Vistage Chair, he helps CEOs and business owners find joy in doing what they love. His greatest qualification as a mentor is that he loves his life and intentionally created it.
