Glenn Starkey is an award-winning author of fifteen published books, a city council member, Vietnam Veteran, former Marine Corps Sergeant, Texas law enforcement officer, a retired security manager of a global oil corporation, and an interim security director of a major Gulf port.

He holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Security Management, has been a security consultant, lectures on a variety of subjects, and has taught creative writing at Alvin's Senior Center. His travels and experiences, in addition to a love of history, are the foundations of his novels. For the past eleven years, Glenn has volunteered as a reading mentor to elementary grade students in his local district to improve their overall skills.

Glenn lives with his family in Alvin, Texas. To learn more about his published works, visit the website GlennStarkey.net.
