Nick Droege, Owner of Texas Tail Distillery in Galveston, TX, began his journey to entrepreneurship in 2013 when his first liquor brand, Texas Tail Vodka, hit the shelves. Since then, he has built the company to the full experience guests enjoy today.

The distillery has become a local favorite where guests gather to enjoy handcrafted drinks, and delicious eats. Texas Tail Distillery has won multiple Gold and Double Gold Medals for their Bourbon and Vodka as well as their most recent placement in the Top Five Bourbons in the World through the San Francisco World Spirits Competition (2024).

Beyond his business, Nick is a servant leader within the Galveston community. He was named the 2020 Small Business of the Year for the Alvin/Manvel Chamber of Commerce as well as the 2023 Small Business of the Year for the Galveston Chamber of Commerce. He is also a C-Crewe Executive Board Member, a Galveston Chamber Board Member, a Rotarian, and an active community leader.
