When is the right time to start a business?

Wondering if now is the right time to start a business? Sole owner and designer of Fan Dress sports apparel for women and girls, Allison Brockman, a Texas A&M graduate, shares her journey from idea to success. Sewing her unique clothing in her dining room while running a household and raising her three children, Brockman credits her success to a “just go for it” mindset. Her dresses have been worn all over the country, including the fields of the World Series by player’s families and sports fans.
