Improve Patient Care by Becoming a Sonographer at Alvin Community College

Sonography is the use of high-frequency sound waves, also known as ultrasound, to observe the internal world of the human body. Sonographers are on the front line of early detection and evaluation of cancer, women's health issues, heart defects, arterial blockages, and more.

ACC offers three DCVS concentrations: Pediatric Cardiac, Adult Cardiac, and Vascular. All require the use of ultrasound machines to produce images of patient's hearts, veins and/or arteries using high frequency sound waves.

Career Opportunities

Career opportunities remain strong nationally and within the region. The Bureau of Labor Statistics notes that the Houston Metro region employs over 1,700 sonographers with an annual wage mean of $85,080. Starting salary for a new graduate is generally around $55,000. Recruiters contact ACC regularly about qualified graduates to fill job openings.

An Adult Cardiac Sonographer is a specialized diagnostic medical sonographer who performs imaging on adult hearts or blood vessels surrounding the heart.

A Pediatric Cardiac Sonographer performs imaging exams on children (age 1-18 years), infants (0-12 months), or fetus (prior to birth). The images focus on the heart's blood vessels.

A Vascular Sonographer examines blood vessels using ultrasound.

If you are compassionate, flexible, detail-oriented, and like working in a fast-paced and caring environment, you might be a good fit as a Sonographer.

What Will I Study?

The DCVS program curriculum is composed of didactic instruction, hands-on laboratory practice, individual outside scanning practice, and supervised external clinical experience.
